ROSENTHAL CASE GROWING COMPLEX

Another Occupant of "Murder Car" Gives Himself Up.

WIFE OF VICTIM TO TESTIFY

Will Tell What She Knows of Police Conviction—Important Developments Expected Now at Any Time—Elated.

New York, July 23.—Important developments in the Rosenthal murder case were expected to follow closely a conference tonight at which Harry Vallon, the dapper gambler and gangster, who was in the "murder car" the night Rosenthal was shot, made a statement to Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty and District Attorney Whitman.

Vallon gave himself up today and was held by the coroner's jury without bail for examination on a charge of complicity in the murder. Apparently the authorities were elated at the information obtained from Vallon, although its nature was not divulged. All Commissioner Dougherty would say was that Vallon "was in the murder car" and that "an important arrest was expected shortly."

From Vallon the district attorney and Commissioner Dougherty hope to get the names of those "higher up" who hired the gun men to slay Rosenthal. Mr. Whitman has flatly thrown down the gauntlet to the police department, declaring that the "murder smells of police connivance."

Outside of Vallon, interest largely centered today in the appearance before the grand jury of Mrs. Rosenthal. Her husband had promised to tell District Attorney Whitman what he knew about the alleged partnership between the police and New York gamblers. The district attorney now hopes to get many of the facts from Mrs. Rosenthal, who is believed to have had intimate knowledge of her husband's affairs.

Mrs. Rosenthal is believed to have told the grand jury today much about the meeting her husband had with Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, who, according to Rosenthal, was his silent partner in his place on West 45th street.

Whether the four gangsters still at large, who were in the "murder car" at the time of the shooting, will follow the lead of Vallon and surrender, is causing much speculation. District Attorney Whitman has announced that he will "protect every man in this case" if he can get the evidence he wants against policemen, evidence which he claims he knows exists. But Commissioner Dougherty and his private detectives, who have been employed, are making every effort to round up these men.

"Whitely" Lewis, gambler and gangster; "Lefty" Lewis, Eastside gangster; Harry Horowitz, known as "Gib, the Blood," Up Town Lieutenant of "Big Jack" Zelig; and "Dago Frank," an Eastside gun man are all sought. It is thought that "Dago Frank" and "Gib the Blood" are still in the city or nearby. The police are not so sure of the whereabouts of the others. It is thought they may be in hiding in Chicago.

Mr. Whitman further said the grand jury is anxious to have appear before it also persons whose names have been mentioned in connection with the gambling situation. He said he had written a formal letter to Lieuts. Riley, Costigan and Becker requiring them to appear as voluntary witnesses, but that he would not issue subpoenas for them. He stated that he would resume his investigation of the matter before the grand jury tomorrow.

HIS GLOVE IN THE RING

Collector of Internal Revenue Defies Taft to Turn Him Out. Birmingham, Ala., July 23.—John O. Thompson, collector of internal revenue for Alabama and Mississippi, today declined to tender his resignation, which had been called for by Secretary MacVeagh "on authority of the President." Mr. Thompson, who is head of the Roosevelt forces in Alabama, made public the Secretary's letter and his own reply.

Mr. Thompson writes that he has twice verbally offered the President his resignation, which was refused and that he will not now gratify the Secretary, even to the point of "lessening the difficulties in which you find yourself involved" by sending him his resignation. He says further that the President has the power of removal and has the liberty to use it.

LUMBER FIRE AT TROY

Plant of Guilford Manufacturing Company Totally Destroyed. Greensboro, N. C., July 23.—Fire shortly after midnight this morning completely destroyed the plant of the Guilford Manufacturing Company at Troy, N. C., together with a large portion of the lumber yards, including thousands of feet of rough lumber and a great deal of finished lumber ready for shipment. The loss is roughly given at between $25,000 and $50,000. The explosion of a lantern used by the night watchman, in the boiler room caused the blaze.

Dissents From Committee Report

MARTIN W. LITTLETON

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Representative Martin W. Littleton, of New York, member of the Democratic majority of the House Steel Trust Investigating Committee, today formally presented his views to the committee, dissenting from the legislative recommendations of Chairman Stanley. He agreed to sign the Stanley report with many reservations. That left Mr. Stanley with but two other members of the committee of nine in complete accord with him. They are Representatives Beall, of Texas, and McGillicuddy, of Maine.

Mr. Littleton's views, to which much publicity has been given, favor principally a joint body of the Senate and House to study the trust question and the exclusion from interstate commerce of corporations in restraint of trade. He declines to support a proposed bill to put upon a corporation the burden of proving it is a "reasonable restraint of trade. Such a bill Mr. Littleton says would preserve the chief fault of the Sherman law which is the policy of a belated attack after a concern has grown up instead of providing any means of preventing."

MEMBERS ARE INDIFFERENT THIRD TERMERS IN JERSEY

Primaries in Home Districts Over, Congressmen Are at Play—Summary Action Is Threatened—Wants Adjournment

Washington, July 23.—For the second time within two days, the House today was forced in despair to adjourn because of the absence of sufficient members to carry on public business. So serious has the situation become that telegrams have been sent to more than two score members who are either at their homes or rusticated at Summer resorts, urging them to return at once. The Democratic caucus tomorrow will adopt a sharp order of admonition to those who persist in remaining away from their desks.

The question of "no quorum" was raised by Representative McMorran, of Michigan, Republican, immediately after the chaplain had finished the prayer that ushered in the legislative day in the House. Only a handful of members were in their places and there was much scurrying of House employees to gather in the absentees. A half hour was wasted.

From time to time, during the debate on the Wilson bill to prohibit the "involuntary servitude" of seamen, the members gradually slipped out of the chamber. When 3 o'clock arrived and the Washington-Detroit baseball game was about to begin, not more than a corporal's guard was on the floor. Mr. McMorran again raised the point of no quorum. There was nothing to do but adjourn.

Washington, July 23.—An effective "steam roller" is to be applied to the Senate, in an effort to hasten an adjournment. Senator Borah today jokingly urged Republican leaders to use "steam roller methods" to put an end to the session. He declared it could be concluded in thirty minutes if proper methods were applied.

Before the adjournment of the Senate tonight Senator Borah endeavored to have the meeting hour changed to 10 o'clock. Protests came from all parts of the chamber, but the Idaho Senator said he would renew his motion tomorrow, and would not desist unless the Senate voted him down.

Washington, July 23.—The Panama Canal Administration bill held the floor of the Senate today just long enough for Senator Percy, of Mississippi, to make a speech against the remission of canal tolls to American shipping. The measure then gave way to the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, which has pushed it aside for several days.

Senator Brandegee expressed little confidence late today in early action on the canal bill. The subject of free (Continued on Page Eight.)

Lead Eastern States in Their Convention—Will Put Out Full Ticket—Telegram of Greeting From Roosevelt

Ashbury, N. Y., July 23.—New Jersey led the Eastern States in the new party movement today when a mass convention of Progressives, launched a separate political organization and decided to nominate a full State ticket for the November election.

The convention voted to put on the ticket a set of Presidential electors supporting Theodore Roosevelt and send to the National Progressive convention in Chicago the same set of delegates that represented the State at the Republican National convention, pledging them again to vote for Col. Roosevelt.

The convention arranged for the appointment of a State committee which will settle details of party organization. It suggested no name for the new party, and agreed to leave that detail and others to the National convention. The possibility of alliance with either of the other established parties was denied in vigorous terms.

All the speakers declared for a fight along distinct new party lines, and all such expressions were enthusiastically applauded.

The convention adopted without dissent the platform recommended by the committee of arrangements. A straight woman's suffrage plank aroused prolonged applause.

The frequent mention of Roosevelt's name called for a series of demonstrations and his picture was everywhere in the hall. The Colonel had been urged to attend but in a telegram to Chairman Fort which was read to the convention, he expressed regret because of his inability to attend, and said:

"May I, through you, extend my heartfelt good wishes to the convention. They are engaged in the task of bringing this government back to what it was intended to be, a government by the people in the interests of the people. The old party organizations have become so hopelessly corrupted as to make it impossible to do anything with them as they now are and this is largely due to the fact that party fights are not now fought along genuine lines of cleavage. Our organization is in every truth the people's organization, and we are trying to help the people to the best of our ability and we are fighting not only on real issues, but upon the issues most vital to the welfare of this Republic."

SEVEN PERISHED IN LONDON FIRE

Girls Caught Like Mice in Trap in Celluloid Card Factory.

MEANS OF ESCAPE CUT OFF

Five Fatally Injured and Number of Others Hurt—One Fell From Dizzy Height of Four-Story Building—Fierce Blaze

London, July 23.—Seven girls were killed, five were fatally injured and several others severely hurt in a fire today in a four-story building in Moor Lane, in the heart of the city, occupied by celluloid Christmas card manufacturers, who employed many females.

The fire started in a front room on the top floor and spread quickly. To reach the stairs, the girls in the back room had to pass through the front room, and before they realized their danger, the flames had cut off the means of escape.

In a few minutes the back room was ablaze. Some of the girls managed to reach the roof and escaped by crossing a plank to the next building ten feet distant, but one lost her footing and fell. Two were overtaken by the flames before they gained the dizzy bridge and a large number leaped from the windows, several of them being horribly mangled. Five girls were burned to death.

The response of the fire brigade was prompt but the swiftness of the fire and the fierceness of the flames belching from the windows prevented effective use of the fire escapes.

TRUST WANTS TO QUIT.

California Sugar Refinery Voluntarily Asks for Dissolution.

San Francisco, July 23.—Application was made to the Superior Court here today for the dissolution of the California Sugar Refining Company, known as the Western branch of the so-called sugar trust. The petition was filed by John D. Spreckles as president and A. D. Spreckles, as vice president.

Dissolution was determined upon by a unanimous vote of the stockholders of the company, July 13th. The capitalization of the company, which was organized April 3, 1907, is given as $300,000. Three thousand shares of the par value of $100 each are outstanding. No reason for the dissolution is given in the application and information regarding it was withheld by the company's attorneys.

Oklahoma City, Okla., July 23.—Mrs. Minnie R. Ralston was found dead in her home near Helena, Okla., today, her throat cut and her skull crushed. She was the wife of Meek Ralston, a prosperous farmer.

ROOSEVELT TALKS OF HIS NEW PARTY

Addressed New York County Chairmen on "The Movement"

VERMONT'S PROGRESSIVES

Both Old Parties Charged With Inconsistency and Corruption—The Dear People Theme of Colonel's Address to Men

New York, July 23.—In his first speech since he returned from Chicago, Colonel Roosevelt today set forth his reasons for leading in the formation of a new party. His address was delivered at a meeting of the New York State county chairmen of the National Progressive party.

"A great responsibility rests upon you men here," said Col. Roosevelt, "who are undertaking the organization of a new party which is to stand foursquare to democracy, which is to be literally the party of the people. It will fight on live issues and not dead ones. It will embody a protest against the corruption in both of the old party machines."

"No good will come, if we merely substitute one set of bosses for another. There is nothing that the bosses of both parties wish so much as to see every decent man vote alternately for each with the vague idea that he is reducing the other."

"Now, no doubt Mr. Barnes and Mr. Murphy would like to have everything all the time, but they are perfectly willing each to take half instead of the whole. But we do not care anything about dividing the State equally between them. What we intend to do is to take it from both and we intend to take the nation from both."

"And in this party, we intend to build a government without and within the party on the lines of genuine popular rule and of social and industrial justice for farmer, wage worker, business man and professional man alike to be achieved not through the boss, not through the indirect control of the party organization by special privilege, but to be achieved through genuine and not merely nominal rule of the people themselves."

The reports of the county chairmen all were highly optimistic and the Colonel beamed with pleasure at various predictions of an overwhelming Roosevelt vote.

Vermont Progressives. Burlington, Vt., July 23.—The first State convention of the Vermont Progressive party was held here today, with seventy delegates present.

The platform was adopted and Presidential electors and delegates to the National Progressive convention were elected.

The following State ticket was nominated: Governor—Rev. Francis Metzger Hanford.

Lieutenant Governor—M. L. Azaltine, St. Albans.

Secretary of State—Dr. J. W. Blake, Barton.

Treasurer—H. S. Howard, Burlington.

Auditor—E. W. Gibson, Brattleboro. Attorney General—Richard R. Hoar, Barre.

The platform favored equal suffrage, direct election of United States Senators, establishment of a parcels post, government ownership of express and telegraph companies, the publicity of campaign expenses and free passage of ships through the Panama canal.

WAGES OF ENGINEERS

Chicago and Alton President Sets Forth Position of Roads

New York, July 23.—The morning session of the arbitration commission to consider the merits of the wage controversy between the locomotive engineers and the managers of 52 railroads east of Chicago, P. A. Worthington, president of the Chicago & Alton, again took the stand. He completed his explanation of 115 statistical tables which the railroad managers offered to controvert the claim of the engineers for increases in pay estimated at $7,500,000 per year.

He said that these tables show a gradual increase in the pay of the engineers who are the highest paid skilled workmen in the service of the railroads. He added that the tables also show a proportionate increase in the pay of other employees whenever the engineers obtain an advance, and that in his opinion it would be difficult to persuade the firemen and other employees that they also are not entitled to more pay.

LIFE ON TOSS OF COIN.

Young Man Committed Suicide in New York Shooting Gallery

New York, July 23.—"Heads I die, tails I live," said Franz Sirle, 24 years old, and out of work, while in a shooting gallery on Eighth avenue tonight. Sirle took a nickel from his pocket and flipped it in the air.

"It's heads," he said as the coin descended. "Well, I've got nothing much to live for."

Then before any of those around him could make a move to stop him he drew a revolver from his pocket, turned it against himself and fired one shot which lodged just under the heart. Sirle died in an ambulance on his way to the hospital.

Labor Leaders Sentenced

WASHINGTON, July 23.—John Mitchell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, was today sentenced to nine months imprisonment for contempt of court, growing out of the Hicks Stove and Range Company, in the District Supreme Court. An appeal was taken and four thousand dollars bail furnished. In the same case Gompers and Morrison were recently sentenced. Gompers was given one year and Morrison six months.

TO CONTINUE TARIFF BOARD

Senate Allows Appropriation for Another Year—Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill About Ready. Overman Speaks.

Washington, July 23.—President Taft's tariff board secured the promise of one more year of life from the Senate today. After a short fight that body, by a vote of 34 to 20, authorized in the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill an expenditure of $225,000 for another year's work of investigation by the tariff experts.

When the appropriation is finally made will depend upon the strength with which the House resists the Senate's demands. The House refused to provide for the tariff board when it framed the Sundry Civil bill and its conferees are expected to fight the provision when the big supply measure is sent into conference between the two houses.

Democrats opposed the tariff board provision today, with but three exceptions, Senators Chamberlain, Newlands and Thornton, while the regular and Progressive Republicans were united in its support. The first measure Democrats was an amendment by Senators Stone and Bacon for a Congressional Tariff Commission, to consist of five Senators and five members of the House. This plan was defeated by a straight party vote, 31 to 21.

The Presidential tariff board was made more subservient to Congress, however, by an amendment of Senator Bristow, accepted by the Senate without a vote, and which requires the board to report to Congress once each year. The Senate practically completed the passage of the measure was delayed until tomorrow.

President Taft's tariff veto messages and the work of some of the experts in the tariff board, were bitterly arraigned during the debate in the Senate. Senator Overman declared President Taft's veto message on the chemical bill was "one of the most remarkable documents ever penned, or ever sent to Congress." He declared the President had been misled by an expert of the tariff board who had made calculations on a "false basis of price," and using the short ton instead of the long ton in his work of estimation. On this authority, said Senator Overman, President Taft had sent a veto message as to the chemical schedule that was "full of error and misstatement of fact."

The Democrats fought the tariff board, declaring it was an agency not as well qualified to find out facts as a Congressional Commission would be. The Senate expects to conclude the appropriation bill and send it back to the House early tomorrow. The bill carries approximately $115,500,000 for the support of important government bureaus and works. The Senate added about $6,000,000 to the amount authorized by the House.

POSTOFFICE BILL COMES TO SENATE

Shorn of Good Roads Provision But With Parcels Post Feature

CARRIES BIG APPROPRIATION

Commission Recommended for Investigation of Highway Subject—Encounters Some Objection on Floor.

Washington, July 23.—The postoffice appropriation bill, shorn of the good roads provision proposed by the House and embracing a revised parcels post system with charges based on zones of distance, was reported to the Senate today by the postoffice committee.

The total appropriations proposed by the bill are above those of the House measure, which carried approximately $260,000,000. One of the principal increases is in the pay of railroads for transporting mails the Senate committee adding more than $2,500,000.

In striking out the Shackleford good roads feature of the House bill, which provided for Federal improvement of highways, the Senate committee recommends an investigation by a special commission of three House members and three Senators and provides for no highway improvement until this commission has reported.

The Barnhardt amendment in the House bill for the regular publication of the names of the stockholders of newspapers and periodicals is changed to provide for publication once a year when lists of the stockholders are required to be filed with the local postmasters.

The parcels post section is radically different from that incorporated in the House bill, which provided a flat rate of postage for all distances. The Senate provision is that of the Bourne bill, slightly modified. Senator Bourne recommended that third and fourth class mail matter be combined for the parcels post service, but the bill makes the parcels post apply only to fourth class matter.

The Senate committee struck out of the House bill the provision giving the postal employees the right to combine in labor unions and the right to petition Congress for redress of their grievances.

It also provided for the abolishment of the present system of carrying second class mail by fast freight, under what is known as the "blue tag" system. Under the Senate bill all second class mail would be put back to regular mail cars after August 31st.

Steel cars for railway mail service which were requested by the House bill are also demanded by the Senate measure.

Senator Obedias Gardner, of Maine, launched an attack upon the measure and counselled the Senate to adopt the plan already approved by the House.

Senator Gardner declared the Senate committee on postoffice giving an unfair to a parcels post bill he had introduced and denounced the Bourne plan as a "mockery." He criticised its limitations and declared its effect would be to give the railroads higher incomes for postal shipments than they now enjoy from express packages.

MRS. WILSON WRITES

Asked to Become President of Women's Democratic League

New York, July 23.—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the Democratic Presidential candidate, has accepted the invitation of the Women's National Democratic League to become its honorary president. Recently Mrs. Steven B. Ayers, of this city, corresponding secretary of the league, sent Mrs. Wilson the request to assume the office, authorized by the league's executive board at its meeting in Baltimore early in this month, together with documents setting forth the object of the organization. Mrs. Wilson, in her reply made public tonight, accepting the honorary presidency, said:

"Mr. Wilson and I have both read with very great interest the inclosures and your letter, and he begs me to thank the league in his name for its powerful support. It would be hard to over-estimate the assistance which such a body of women can render to a cause when they feel, as in this campaign that there are moral issues involved; and Mr. Wilson cannot fail to be profoundly helped by the mere consciousness that such women believe in him as a worthy leader in such a cause."

"Yours very cordially, ELLEN A. WILSON."

GERMANY NOT DISTURBED.

Neither Irritated Over Naval Debate in House of Commons.

Berlin, July 23.—German public opinion is neither disturbed nor irritated over yesterday's naval debate in the House of Commons in London. The press generally seems satisfied with Germany's comparative position under the new order of things and praises the speech of Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, as frank without the usual provocativeness. It criticises, however, the attempt to throw the responsibility for increased armaments on Germany.

Old Major League Goes Back to Handle the Indicator.

New York, July 23.—The National League, through President Lynch, has purchased the release of Umpire Al Orth from the Virginia League. Orth's work as an umpire in the Virginia League has been highly praised by major league scouts. The new umpire probably will report to President Lynch this week and will be given an early opportunity to show his worth. Orth's last major league engagement was a pitcher of the New York American League club.

Miss Besie Price was the hostess Monday night of a motorboat party in the launch owned by her brother, Mr. J. A. Price. Leaving the Carolina Yacht Club pier at 8 o'clock the party spent about an hour cruising about Banks' Channel and later in the evening went to Lumina, where they joined the large number of other dancers. Those in the party besides the hostess were Miss Lillie Taylor and her guest, Miss Louise Vincent, Athens, Ga.; Miss Gladys Taylor, Miss Janet O'Neill and her guest, Miss O'Neill, of Charleston, S. C., and Messrs. J. A. Price, Ned and Hugh Hines and Henry Nash.

MANEUVERS AT PETTUS

"Red" and "Brown" Armies Come in From Sham Battle.

Anniston, Ala., July 23.—The "Red" and the "Brown" armies which have been engaged in sham battles and other military maneuvers around the city for the past two days, returned to Camp Pettus this evening. It is generally conceded that the "Brown" or defensive forces, composed of the Alabama, Florida and South Carolina regiments were victorious. Tomorrow will be pay day at Camp Pettus and the period of camp life will end Thursday, when the regiments now here will return to their homes.

BISHOP WARREN DEAD

Retired Prelate of Methodist Church Passes in Denver.

Denver, Colo., July 23.—Bishop Henry W. Warren, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who was retired from active work by the General Conference last May, died here tonight. He was stricken with pneumonia a few days ago.

Theatrical.

"A Windy Day" is the topline in moving pictures at The Grand Theatre today and while there will be two others, this will be the feature. It is a Lubin and, therefore, as clear as a bell. Teddy Blow, leaving his home, is conscious that a stiff wind is blowing. His hat goes off and is demolished by a wagon. He opens his umbrella and this carries him up in the air, then it turns and Blow is dropped through a skylight into a room where an aged spinster is busy at breakfast. He escapes to the street and is pursued. The wind flattens him against a wall. The old maid carries him home and inflates him with an air pump. Presently he wakes up and discovers that an electric fan has been blowing on his face. It is a great film and one that will keep the house in an uproar from start to finish.

"The Wandering Minstrel" is the story of a wandering musician and a valet of a girl whom he takes under his care and protection. They grow up together, the valet finally marries against the musician's will but they finally become reconciled and then all is well.

While these two are the feature films, they by no means constitute everything that patrons of the Grand get for the small sum of five cents. There is still a third reel of pictures and music by the orchestra at each performance. Then in addition still the house is always delightfully cool and pleasant and it is a real treat simply to go and sit for an hour under the ocean breezes.

At The Bijou Today Today is truly going to be a delicious day at the delightful new Bijou. It is going to be one of those light, fairy days, filled with the good things of life, in the way of joyful amusement and the pleasures of life in the way of solid comfort, for which this popular theatre is noted. In fact, the cool breezes of the Bijou and its perfect ventilation make it a delightful retreat during the hottest weather.

The deliciousness of today's bill lies in the fact that there will be many merry, wholesome comedy films, that will fill each heart with mirth. One of the star films for today is "Kitty's Holdup." This is a ripple for fun all the way through. Kitty masquerades as a college chap and goes to a dance, where she flirts with the girls. Returning home she carries on the deception by playing the role of a burglar, but fortunately gets nabbed by a policeman.

Another awfully jolly hit is "How Father Accomplished His Work." This shows what a hard time father has at home finding a quiet spot in order to work. His mother-in-law has a noisy parrot, his daughter musical instruments and his son a punching bag, etc. Finally the old man hits upon the happy idea of having a burglar swipe the whole blamed business.

The leading dramatic film for today is "Honor Thy Father," and it is a photoplay that should be seen by all. It is sweet and pure of thought and portrayal, and teaches a great lesson, son.

Today's Bijou bill, all for 5 cents at any time, is going to be "some show."

BIRD RESIGNS

New York Appraiser of Customs Quits And Gives Statement.

Washington, July 23.—Francis W. Bird, Appraiser of Customs at New York, resigned today. In his letter to Secretary MacVeagh Mr. Bird says he quits his office to join Col. Roosevelt's new party.

Mr. Bird, who has here today to present his resignation personally, issued a statement giving his reasons for joining the new party.

"The progressive movement represents as neither the Republican nor the Democratic parties as now constituted represent, the principles of constructive liberalism that are so vital today," he said. "Believing firmly in these principles I feel called upon to do my utmost to support them through the new movement."

DESCENDANT OF MARSHALL

Indiana's Governor Not of the Chief Justice's Family.

Louisville, Ky., July 23.—An assertion that Governor Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, Democratic nominee for the Vice Presidency, is a grand nephew of the famous chief justice, John Marshall, is challenged here. Burwell K. Marshall, himself an attorney and a member of the family whose name is a name of honor, in a letter to The Courier-Journal published today asks for a correction of what he describes as a "misstatement."

"Governor Marshall," read the letter, "is neither a grand nephew of Chief Justice Marshall nor is he connected with him or the Marshall family of Virginia or Kentucky, which is related to Chief Justice Marshall, in the remotest degree."

CAR ACCIDENT IN RALEIGH

Daughter of Former Governor Aycock Injured—Monument to Women of Confederacy—Schools in Craven—Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.) Raleigh, N. C., July 23.—It develops today that injuries to Miss Mary Aycock, daughter of the late Governor Aycock, sustained in the street car accident last night are not nearly so serious as was at first feared. Her back was right painfully wounded, but not seriously, and she has bruises about her arms.

The other members of the party in the street car were not injured. The street car on Blount street in front of the Governor's mansion, Dr. Albert Anderson, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. C. B. Aycock, are all out and well except for bruises and some nerve strain. The motorman is blamed for not stopping the car more quickly than he did when the horse Dr. Anderson was driving became frightened at popping wires and began backing on to the car track. Dr. Anderson says the car was fully three car lengths away from them when the horse began backing on the track and that the car could have been easily stopped before a crash with anything like prompt action, but they are mighty thankful that he stopped the car, after all, in time to save their being ground under the wheels as they certainly would have been had the car struck them with a little more momentum.

County Superintendent of Schools S. M. Brinson, of Craven county, reports to the State Department of Education another local tax election carried for the improvement of schools. This time the election was for Townships Eleven, District No. 1. This makes 17 local tax districts for Craven with indications that there will be numbers of others before a great while.

The Rome bulletin is published in languages that make it available for fifty nationalities. The North Carolina bulletins were prepared by State Agronomist J. L. Burgess, who is recognized as an authority on the country over.

The commission appointed by Col. Ashley Horne to select the design and have erected the $10,000 monument to the North Carolina Women of the Confederacy as a gift from Col. Horne to the State, is to meet Wednesday of this week for the purpose of passing upon two designs proposed by Mr. Augustus Lukeman, the sculptor selected by the commission to prepare designs. He has two designs that he will submit and the committee will be at liberty to select either or neither of them. The central figure of both designs is a typical Southern woman of the period of the Confederacy. One of the designs shows her with a youth standing beside her typifying the idea that she has already sacrificed husband and son and is ready if need be, in her self-sacrifice to give her grandson to the service of her country. In the other design she has beside her a maiden representing the grand daughter of the Confederacy and the Southern woman is instilling in her the spirit of the Daughter of the Confederacy.

On one side of the pedestals for both of these figures there are to be bas-relief representations of men of Confederacy leaving their homes, their wives, their daughters and sweethearts for the front with the most buoyant and hopeful attitude. And on the other a representation of the dejected and wretched home-coming conditions. The entire monument is to be about thirty feet and there are to be suits arranged about it in harmonious design. The monument is to face the main entrance to the new fire-proof administration building.

JAIL DELIVERY AT KINSTON.

Four Prisoners Make Escape—Run-away Accident—Firemen Off.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., July 23.—Four prisoners made their escape from the Lenoir county jail here in the early part of the night, and are still at large. The delivery is supposed to have been accomplished through the aid of sympathizers on the outside. The men who escaped were confined in cells in the first floor cage. An iron bar was evidently used in prying off the locking bar, and the theory that outside aid was had is strengthened by the fact that the men were seen coming from the rear of the prison about 11 o'clock in the night. Two of the men who made a getaway were "Pink" McLaren, an Ohio mulatto, and Stephen Harper, a negro. These were being held here pending repairs on the Greene county jail at Snow Hill, and they will throw open their doors throughout the meeting to the association.

The Rowan Press Club has received several letters from several organizations offering to assist in entertaining the newspaper men if they will come. The Old Hickory Club has asked to let them give a smoker the next night, and they will throw open their doors throughout the meeting to the association.

The Elks have asked to let them give a smoker one night, and state the Elks Club will be wide open to the association. The Empire Hotel will not only give special rates, but will give a banquet the second night.

The North Carolina Public Service Co. will furnish free transportation, to all of the members of the association, and will furnish special cars at any time during the convention. The Automobile Committee will furnish all of the machines to meet trains, to carry members anywhere in and around the city. Special trips to Whitney and Granite quarries have been arranged.

The Salisbury Industrial Club, and the Rowan Press Club will give an old-time barbecue at the fair grounds one afternoon. The Merchants' Association and other organizations and individuals have offered their assistance in the proper entertainment of the pencil pushers.

James H. Warburton, chief correspondent of the Rowan Press Club, says that everything will be done to get the next meeting, and that everything will then be done to make it the biggest and the most pleasant ever attended by the North Carolina Press Association.

GATE CITY AFFAIRS

M. P. Orphanage Fund—Bridge Construction—Small Fire

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 23.—Chairman T. A. Hunter and Secretary J. M. Millikan, of the canvassing committee of the Methodist Protestant Orphanage, which is conducting a Statewide campaign to raise $15,000 for the institution had received reports last night from points, all of which were very flattering. The reports were sufficient to warrant the statement today that 40 per cent of the total fund had been raised on the first day of the canvass and that it is highly probable when all the reports from the first day's work are submitted it will be shown that one-half of the total sum desired has been raised. The proposed orphanage will be located at High Point and will be built just as soon as the necessary funds are in hand.

The commissioners of Guilford county continue to prosecute their recently adopted policy of bridging the streams of Guilford with steel and concrete bridges. Yesterday afternoon the commissioners awarded a contract for the building of a concrete bridge across Buffalo creek at a point where it crosses North Elm street along the route to the County Club. The contract calls for the completion of the bridge at a cost of $5,000.

Tyre Dodson, a lad 14 years of age and a nephew of Mr. A. S. Tate, suffered a broken arm and other bad hurts yesterday afternoon by being thrown from a bicycle. The little victim was given prompt medical attention and will probably recover.

Scarcely had the Greensboro firemen departed for Fayetteville yesterday when a fire occurred on Greene street, almost in the heart of the town. The fire originated in the roof of a large frame building where Mrs. S. E. Turner conducted a boarding house. The entire members of the fire companies left as protection to the city, responded promptly with the use of an abundance of water kept the flames confined to the upper portion of the structure until the fire was finally extinguished.

If men want to gain the respect of the masses they must be respectful and respectable.

Many a man who thinks he has set
the woods afire, couldn't even show a thumb full of ashes as proof.

The Turko-Italian war is still in progress. The Italians can't get into the desert and the Turks can't get out.

After the 4th of next March the country will have two ex-Presidents
whose opinions of each other will not be fit to print.

What will North Carolina Republicans do when they find out that they have climbed on a dump cart instead of a bandwagon?

The new Solicitor General of Louisiana is named Bullitt. It would require only a few Scotch highballs to make Bullitt half shot.

Chicago is not setting up any extra cots on account of the meeting of the Bull Moose National convention, which assembles in 12 days.

The dramatic newspapers contain costumed pictures of Miss Olga Orloff
in musical comedy. She has the appearance of having taken 'em Orloff.

The Philadelphia Inquirer inquires:
"Who was the original Wilson man?"
We stand on our right to refuse to answer a question of such a strictly personal nature.

Senator LaFollette's attitude just
at this time is throwing rocks at Ted.
He cannot consistently support Taft
and we predict that he is bound to support Wilson.

A floating paragraph says: "A gallon of water weighs ten pounds." Water is a rather heavy diet, and probably
that is the reason many individuals
prefer light refreshments.

The interests subscribed nearly $2-000,000 to elect Taft. They were repaid ten times over by the passage of the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, but President Taft and his party will have to pay the penalty.

Republican newspapers insist that since Governor Wilson is a candidate for President he should resign. The Governor does not propose to resign,
and that is where the people of New Jersey are safe.

Let President Taft cheer up. Former Senator Chauncey Depew is in Paris and is telling newspaper interviewers that Taft will be re-elected.
However, the President knows what a joker the ex-Senator is.

The New Orleans States makes this note: "Ex-Forester Gifford Pinchot has informed the assessors of Washington City that his house is undervalued."
Well, er—er—probably that will have a bad effect if it is for sale.

One of the things to be decided by the Progressive convention at Chicago August 5th, is the difference between a white moose and a black moose. The color question gets into the Roosevelt
party before it gets its head above water.

Says ex-President Roosevelt:
"I am no longer bound by the policies of a party. I am free." That also sets
the Republican party free, for it is no longer bound by the policies of one man. We are living in the second age of emancipation.

To use millions to corner bread and meat and squeeze high prices out of poor people is a crime. Guilt is personal, once declared the Hon. Judson Harmon, but neither Roosevelt nor Taft ever attempted to put any guilty person in the penitentiary.

COTTON GROWING IN AFRICA.

A considerable portion of British and German territory in Africa is adapted to the production of cotton,
and the European spinners have been doing their best to encourage cotton growing everywhere it is possible to grow it in competition with American cotton. The British colonial office has set aside $2,500,000 to stimulate cotton growing in British East Africa and Uganda, but while both regions are believed to be well adapted to the crop,
the New York Commercial is confident that American cotton planters are in
no danger of having their market circumscribed as long as the staple does not go much above 12 cents a pound.

Growing cotton in Africa depends pretty much upon the same conditions which prevail in the South. In the first place, the land and climate have to be suitable, and in the second place
labor has to be plentiful as well as skilled in its cultivation. Then the question of transportation cuts a big figure in the economical handling of the crop. If all other conditions in Africa were favorable, and there was lacking labor and transportation equal
to those advantages in the South, cotton growing in Africa would be a slow process and a naturally limited industry.

We are inclined to believe that Africa
has neither the labor nor the transportation to enable it to grow cotton in competition with the South. In time labor may become plentiful and railroads and modern highways may reduce the cost of transportation, but
that will be so long off, and cotton growing will progress so slowly that by the time the African districts begin to produce on a considerable scale, the world shall have grown so
in its needs that the demand will be no better supplied in proportion than it is now.

It costs just so much to produce
cotton anywhere—in the South, in Africa, in Egypt, in India, in China, in Corea, in Turkestan, or in any country where a merchantable staple can be grown. Some countries may have the advantage of cheap labor, but considering the skill of American labor and the transportation facilities
possessed by the South the disadvantage for producing cotton at less cost
all round is largely in favor of the South at present. Then again, there must be an area equally as great as that of the South in order to make competition formidable.

We understand from consular reports that East Africa and Uganda produce a good grade of cotton. This year Uganda is exporting 105,000 cwt.
of cotton, but that is equivalent to
only 25,500 standard American bales,
just about enough to load two ordinary tramp steamers, such as load cotton at Wilmington. In fact, that would be two small cargoes for Wilmington exporters. However, it has been demonstrated that East Africa
can grow good cotton, but the American consul says the district is without railroads, piers, steamboats or good rural highways. It is also reported that much of the cotton already raised in that country is allowed to rot for lack of storage and transportation facilities.

The British government's appropriation is for the purpose of attempting to improve these conditions, but the best cotton authorities are satisfied
that whenever the efforts to grow cotton on any considerable scale in East Africa becomes successful, the contemporaneous development of that country would create a demand for cloth large enough to consume at home
all the African production. In the meantime, the world's demands will grow proportionately, so the cotton growers of the South need not feel any very great alarm about competition. However, they had better build plenty of good roads to cheapen handling and so progress in farming methods and developments of better varieties as to make it impossible for any country to compete with us in cotton production.

The New York Commercial takes
the same view of the South's cotton industry and believes that while the Lancashire spinners would, as a matter of course, like to be independent of the United States, it will require a much larger investment than the United Kingdom is now making before South African cotton can become a factor of much consequence in the markets of the world. While the British government is willing to lend its aid, it is not without considerable opposition, for government aid is not looked upon favorably for an industry
which ought to be self-sustaining.
Nevertheless, the British government would be as much justified in taxing
its people to make cotton growing profitable, as the United States are in making manufacturing profitable at the expense of the masses. However,
these are economic questions which
have nothing to do with this subject.
The Commercial comes to the conclusion that while British government aid to cotton growing is a good thing
for the Lancashire spinners, that paper is of the opinion that it will not materially change the raw cotton situation. Says the Commercial:

"Native labor is not very cheap in Africa, and it is doubtful if cotton can be grown there at a cost which will admit of its sale in Liverpool at much below 10 cents a pound. If our Southern States can keep on producing enough cotton to meet the demands of the world's markets at about 12 cents
a pound their pre-eminence in cotton

will not be threatened. It was the 14
and 15 cents range carried through two crop years that caused Lancashire to petition the British government for relief. Lancashire as well as all Europe is resigned to a higher range of prices for raw cotton, and the cloth
trade has been readjusted on a basis
of current values, as is proven by the enormous purchases of American cotton and the prosperity of English and continental cotton mills."

REACTIONARY PROGRESSIVES.

Progressive Republican leaders are only reactionaries, and they have fooled the Star a little bit in the new platform adopted by the Michigan followers of Roosevelt a few days ago. The progressives of that state were the first to hold a State convention to adopt a platform and name
delegates to the National Roosevelt convention, which is to meet in Chic-go on Monday, August 13th. Leaving out the non-essentials, or so-called
"progressive issues," the Michigan
platform, in almost every particular,
is a Republican declaration. It is especially so on the tariff, for no standpatter could object to the so-called progressivism that in the one main doctrine is the same as the G. O. P.
The Baltimore Sun seems to be surprised at it, judging from this comment:

"Scratch a Russian and you will find a Tartar. Scratch even the most radical of Progressive Republicans and you will find a high protectionist.
Note, for example, the platform of the Michigan Progressives. They se-ceded from the old Republican party
and left behind them all its favorite gods and saints—except one. That they carried off with them in their new ark of the covenant and set up on their new altar. What is the use of talking about the rights of the people
in one breath and talking about 'the maintenance of a protective tariff'
in the next? What the people are demanding in this campaign is not only
the right to select their own public servants, without the consent of
"steam rollers" of any party or party,
but the power and right to keep the hands of special beneficiaries out of their pockets. The Michigan Republicans have carried with them one of the most insidious and dangerous of their old divinities."

The so-called progressive platform
adopted in Michigan is the forerunner
of the party declaration to be made by the Chicago convention. It represents Roosevelt's views, because his personal representative, Senator Dixon, of Montana, was there to steer the first progressive State convention. It represents the tariff ideas of Roosevelt and himself and doubtless he carried the draft of it there from Roosevelt headquarters.

We are not surprised that a platform dictated by Roosevelt and Dixon has standard earmarks. We know how Roosevelt stands on the tariff, and if we didn't know we could infer a great deal from the fact that George W.
Perkins, one of the high priests of privilege, is perfectly content to be one of his ardent followers. Perkins would not follow Roosevelt and put up thousands of dollars for his campaign
if he did not know that his man stood for protection and plenty of it, besides being committed to a certain trust policy which looks good to the Harvester Trust magnate.

The progressive masses may shy at
the protective tariff platform adopted
in Michigan, but if they are in favor of tariff revision downward they will gain nothing by following further after the Bull Moose party. It is essentially Republican, and if they are Republicans they would gain nothing by quitting the old party to follow another Republican party under a different name.

The Star said the other day that there was no need for another party
if it could not have principles and policies different from those of the Republican and the Democratic parties. We knew that the new party would be either Republican or Democratic, and as a matter of fact, it is only another Republican party organized to back
the personal ambitions of Theodore Roosevelt.

We fancy that the Michigan progressive platform will open the eyes of progressive Republicans who are opposed to privilege and who are demanding relief from excessively high protective tariffs. Certainly such a tariff reformer as Senator LaFollette cannot endorse such a platform, and indeed, none of the Republican masses
need expect any relief if they support the kind of progressivism laid down by Roosevelt and Dixon.

The honest progressives are being gold bricked in proper shape, but thousands of them will see through it
and stay out of the Bull Moose party,
just like we predict that LaFollette will do. All Congressmen elected on the Bull Moose platform would be found voting with the standpatters for privilege, and so far as concerns all other fads in the platform, nothing ever will become of them. No doubt the Chicago platform to be adopted
in a few days will be a repetition of the Michigan platform, unless the friends of revision see to it that their party is not committed to standpattery.

HOW MANUFACTURING HELPS.

According to the Oxford Public Ledger, the thriving young city of Oxford
is to have a new industry that will employ a large number of people. The new enterprise will be a branch manufacturing plant of the Golden Belt
Manufacturing Company, of Durham.
The Public Ledger says that concern
is one of the largest in the country,
its output being bags for manufactured

smoking and chewing tobacco. It has in Durham a immense plant which employs 1,000 people, principally
young women.

The Oxford branch is to occupy the factory on Rectory street,
and all preparations are being made to begin operations in two weeks. The new industry was secured by the Oxford Commercial Club and the Merchants' Association, and the Ledger gives special credit to Mr.
A. H. Powell for his untiring efforts
in pulling the industry for Oxford.
That is the way the up-country towns grow into cities. They make special efforts to secure industries and as a result their population grows so rapidly
that they are fast becoming cities.

Wilmington would find it a good way
to provide employment for her present population, while it would be the means of attracting more people as fast as they are needed. Wilmington needs more employing industries and a greater population to warrant the continued satisfactory growth and prosperity of the city.

As long as Congress passes laws to enable a favored class to increase
prices to consumers, there is bound to be dissatisfaction and unrest in this country. A tax to support the government in an economical way is reasonable, but a tax law to enable the privileged few to levy tribute on the masses is unjust, unrighteous and infamous.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Colonel will find that he is not "grinding his own axe" sharp
enough to split the "Solid South."
—Raleigh News and Observer.

A trainload of Richmond boosters
are coming to Newbern in the next week or two. Almost every line of business will be represented by boosters from that progressive city. New-bern will welcome them.—Newbern Sun.

Governor Kitchen's friends seem to be very optimistic about his chances for the nomination. One of them said on the street yesterday,
"I just can't help believing that Kitchen is going to beat him." However, there is one thing more confidence on the part of the supporters of Senator Simmons.—Rocky Mount Telegram.

"We make our appeal," writes the Colonel, "to the sons of the men who fought under Grant and to the sons
of the men who fought under Lee."
This implied rebuke to General
Sickles is "especially funny" to a correspondent of the New York Herald,
who remembers what he heard the Colonel say in a speech at Binghamton, New York. "He was fresh from not charging up San Juan Hill, and was running for Vice President." You talk about the solid South! We lick
'em in 1865, and we'll lick 'em again!
—Columbia State.

The reduction of approximately 2,500,000 acres in the cotton area, as given out in the government reports,
is a gratifying demonstration that cotton farmers can and will control the output, if they are properly advised and thoroughly organized. The instant effect upon prices, which were already well sustained, is convincing evidence of the wisdom of the reduction. With a condition of about 80 per cent, it will be phenomenal if the yield per acre this year equals that of last year.
With average seasons from now until October the yield will not exceed 13,
000,000 bales; with ideal seasons it cannot exceed 15,000,000. A 15,000, 000-bale crop judiciously marketed
will bring at least 12 cents; a 13,000,
000-bale crop ought to bring 15 cents.
It seems reasonably assured, therefore, that the cotton crop this year
will bring profitable prices.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The gloom that now envelops Oyster Bay is due to the refusal of good and true Roosevelt men in various States to specially the local office
to the cause. They are willing to steal regular Republican electors, and notwithstanding would please them better than
to get all the Taft votes for their State,
district and county tickets, but in fighting for the Lord they have no idea of surrendering anything to anybody. The "middle-of-the-road" march of the Michigan Bull Moose men may be magnificent, but it is not war as the average progressive elsewhere defines
it. He is for subtler strategy. Selfishness of this kind is naturally very shocking to the Colonel. He has had very honor and emolument that politics has to bestow, but he is perfectly willing to strip his followers of all their possessions in that line to get a few more for himself. It is not the obstinacy of his friends that grieves
him. It is their greed and their ingratitude.—New York World.

Not a single reputable doctor will prescribe a remedy for your ill unless he analyzes your malady, yet
some doctors of Divinity would have us refill the same prescription, whether it suits our ailment or not.

The article that appeared in yesterday's issue of The Star by "Good Government" must be given credit for
being suggestive of these remarks.
The writer handled the subject in a masterly way, that should awaken the energies of our best citizenship. I trust that good results may ensue,
though some may just give it a passing notice.

But how any such good accomplishments could be attained, must logically
be the next supreme question.

As usual before we proceed to write the prescription, we must locate the seat of trouble. Well, that much conceded, we find ourselves face to face
with this world's wickedness.
In John 3:16, we read: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Now it is obvious even to the most doubtful, if God in His omnipotence
had to give, in order to gain, and had
to love the world in order to save it,
how can weak and mortal man lift up
humanity without giving or loving humanity?

Giving does not necessarily mean
money, but it may be a smile, a kind word, or a drink of water for that matter, in keeping with dictates of humanity.

From the many cases enumerated in the article of "Good Government" we trace the disease to Selfishness, in the same sense that typhoid was traced
to the fly.

Swat selfishness must inevitably
come to be our theme if we expect to look for a good harvest.

Destroy egotism of the face of the earth, and I will be found quite willing to stand the charges for the balance of human errors resulting from any other cause.

I am willing to take the contract
gratis to lessen at least 25 per cent
of human misery, were someone on the other hand to contract for return
engaging the pulpits to combat this disease for at least 12 months. It do not mean that the charge of egotism
is laid at the doors of the churches,
but I do mean that if the good seed
is planted, to start with in its proper place so that it may spread out and
be diffused in the outer world, the good work of the pulpit will duly bear fruit.

Not a single commandment may be trespassed upon, if selfishness can be annihilated.

The preacher who, in a last Saturday's paper had to invite strangers to fill his pews, will be surprised to find
what a small room he had for a waiting crowd, were he to invite the masses to feast upon a sermon of Christian Brotherhood.

The trusts will never be wanting in regulations, or the unions charged with dynamiting a Los Angeles building were the masses duly nursed on
the milk of human kindness.

The horrible war unjustly carried on
by Italy would have never come to pass. The precious sacrifices on the altar of selfishness in this unequalled
black upon Turkey would have been spared, and the many widows bereaved in the death of their valiant husbands would not have been shedding tears
over their missing life companions,
were it not for selfishness.

The most notorious gambling case
of New York engaging presently the solid attention of the whole country,
could never have occurred were it not
for selfishness.

There is nothing new under the sun,
and these remarks are not a novelty
within the scope of the pen. All things exists since creation, but some lack administration. More or less the virtues stood dormant. In some cases
they were neutralized by the same

Christ never hid Himself behind a

Wild grass and weeds grow in a

Laziness creates prophets, and the

If we just do away with our migras

iniquities we will soon forget how good

Human betterment far exceeds personal aggrandizement. We must stop

we do of the deformity of the hearts

er of all errors—Human Selfishness—

may be realized.

CONSTIPATION IS A MENACE IN SUMMER

Regularity of Bowels Very Important to Health at
This Time

At no time should people more closely watch the condition of their bowels than during hot weather. Summer conditions contribute in various ways
to cause constipation, but whatever the cause the trouble should be quickly corrected; constipation, if neglected, leads directly to serious, and often fatal disease.

Some people find that certain fruits
have laxative effect, but this cannot be depended upon; a mild laxative
tonic that will act gently and positively, without griping or shock to the system, is far preferable. The compound of simple laxative herbs with pepsin
known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is highly recommended as being easy
and natural in action, pleasant to the taste, and certain in its effect. A dose of Syrup Pepsin at night will restore normal action in the morning, carrying off the heaviness and bloat. Salts, purgative waters and cathartics should be avoided, as they upset the entire system and afford at best but temporary relief. By cleansing the bowels and removing the foreign matter
that irritates and inflames the tissues,
a spoonful of Syrup Pepsin will quickly check the Summer diarrhoea
that is so weakening. Dr. Caldwell's

SOLDIERS IN CAMP WILSON GOOD PROGRESS WAS MADE

Boys' Brigade Companies Spend a Great Day—Fishing Trip and Turtle Egg Hunt—Baseball Games—Other Features

(Special Star Correspondence.) Camp "Wilson," Southport, N. C., July 23.—General Order No. 6, issued today is as follows: Guard Detail for Monday, July 23rd; Officer of the Day, Lieut. C. C. Davis; Sergeant of the Guard, Walton; Privates, Borneman, G. Davis, K.

Two o'clock this morning marked the close of undoubtedly the most thoroughly enjoyable and interesting day of the encampment. The boys were with us Monday from 8 A. M. in the morning until P. M. in the night, and gave us success in every effort at pleasure and sport.

The fishing squad was the first to begin the day's work. Under command of Capt. "Lily from Philly" Williams, Chief Frank Garrison, and Deck Hand "Jeems" Price and "Cinderella" Cameron, a terrific onslaught was made upon the reputation of Isaac Walton. They left camp 7 A. M., and returned before noon with a plentiful supply of trout, croakers, jimmies and various other of the finny tribe. The members of the Brigade have always been noted for their kind-heartedness and on this trip "Mr. Brown" Kelly Jewell added undying glory to their fame. Becoming so sufficed with sympathy for the poor little starving fishes that literally he could contain himself no longer he emptied his sorrow upon the bosom of the mourning sea, continuing to empty thereof for the remainder of their journey. Just after he had bought $11 worth of fishing tackle in a pretty green box, too.

One of the features of the encampment was the ball game pulled off at 4 o'clock between Company B and Southport. After an hour and forty minutes of exciting play the contest was added to the scalp-belt of Company B with a score of 5 to 0. The rookie of Johnnie Mac was a feature. Batteries for Southport were Rourke and Bell; for the Brigade, Huhn and Wilson; umpire Major Dushan; attendance—still waiting for the official count.

The one crowning event of the day and of the encampment thus far was the turtle egg hunt participated in by 10 of the boys last night. Led by Col. Taylor they headed for Bald Head at 8 P. M., and were soon on the beach and upon a determined hunt for their quarry. That was a bad looking mob, too, divested of shoes, socks (some of us wear 'em) shirts and headgear, they were weary to make any turtle egg seek its nest, and any turtle see its eggs, or "Ages as our beloved comrade Tom Walker, insists. Some of the boys had never participated in such a quest before and were soon stalking boxes, wreckage and seaweed most assiduously. Walker Taylor, Jr., Alfred Seales and Frank King by dint of much perseverance and labor surrounded an empty and horribly pungent cracker box and very effectively prevented its escape to the open sea. Soon though everybody got onto his job and had settled down to work in earnest. After following one or two old trails, and after a few barren nests, a fresh trail was discovered and ere long to the huge delight of all a nest containing 121 eggs was found. Thus inspired the chase was more ardently continued and again success was our reward—138 eggs were added to the bag from a second nest. Then came the full cup of joy for all the nimrods. Just in front of the new light house, six miles from the starting point one old larger-head was located still on the nest. When she had finished laying and had been turned upon her back a dance of triumph was held on the sands. After about half an hour's speculation as to the madam's size, weight, age, color, previous condition of servitude, she was again upright and headed for her ocean home, "Corker" Walker playing the jockey. He really intended taking a personally conducted tour of the world with Madam but she proved to be such a rapid steed in the breakers that he decided a home under the rolling waves was not suitable for his temperament, and forthwith he started shoreward. Then the "sixty"-mile journey homeward was begun with 375 eggs in our bag. The trip around the beach is only six miles but the return distance is about sixty actual count. About 12:30 o'clock we straggled back to Bald Head dock, tired, footsore, sandy, dirty and joyously happy. After a refreshing swim we headed across the bay for Cap Wilson and our cuts with a great evening's sport and experience indelibly written upon the minds of all.

Those participating in the frolic were Colonel Taylor, J. A. Price, A. J. Burriss, Claud Hill, Charles Davis, Fleet Williams, Hiram King, Tom Walker, John Burriss, Frank Garrison, Walker Taylor, Jr., Alfred Seales, Asa Russ, Bruce Cameron, Henry Gerdes and Frank King.

Not a single case of sickness has yet shown up in the camp. The boys seem to be as happy, healthy and hungry as colts.

Misses Katherine Taylor and Athalia Bunting and Messrs. J. W. Fleet and W. E. Yopp were guests of the company at supper last night. Messrs. Yopp and Fleet will be down for a few days waging war upon the denizens of the deep.

ADVENTURE WITH BIG BEAR
Two Cumberland County Men Had Unpleasant Experience.

Mr. Jesse Ray and Mr. E. W. Smith came into close quarters with a huge black bear this morning, which was not a pleasant experience, and caused them to "vacate" with expedition. These gentlemen were on the way to Fayetteville, driving a mule to a cart, and near Jessup's mill in the lower edge of the county, 19 miles from here, they saw Bruin standing in a clump of round pines not 10 feet from the road. As the mule got opposite him, the bear gave a terrific growl and rose on his hind legs. The mule plunged forward, and our friends accelerated his right by a liberal application of the whip. From a safe distance they looked back, and Bruin was still standing defiantly erect. Bears are said to be quite numerous in that section, and eat a good many shoats for the farmers.

Fourteen Cases Disposed of in Superior Court—Unusual Coincidence. To Take Up Capital Cases. Grand Jury.

Fourteen cases were disposed of at yesterday's session of Superior Court, and when a recess was taken at 5:30 there remained only a few minor cases on the docket. The capital cases, of which there are a number, will in all likelihood be reached this afternoon or tomorrow morning, though none of them has been definitely set for trial at any stated time. Judge Frank Carter, presiding, and Solicitor Shaw are well pleased with the progress that has been made.

A coincidence that has probably never occurred in a Superior Court in North Carolina happened yesterday when three different cases against one man were in the hands of three different juries at one time and all three juries returned a verdict of guilty. The defendant was Marion Green, colored, charged with assaults with a deadly weapon in two cases and carrying a concealed weapon in another. The negro had been tried in the Recorder's court and found guilty in each case. He was given a total sentence of three months on the county roads and took an appeal. When a verdict of guilty was returned in each case yesterday Judge Carter sentenced him to three years on the county roads, giving him a year in each case. The cases charged him with carrying a revolver and of pointing it at Minnie Clark and Joe Merritt, both colored. They were the first cases taken up yesterday morning when court convened at 9:30 o'clock and were dispatched in short order. While the jury was considering the first case the other two were tried and the juries retired, all being out at the same time. The coincidence was remarked on in the court room and occasioned considerable comment on the part of members of the bar and court attaches.

Thomas Hussey, colored, was found guilty of storebreaking, and was sentenced to two years on the county roads. The negro broke into the store of Mr. J. W. Winders at Castle Haynes last fall. The jury was out only a short time.

A. J. Page, colored, was found guilty of the larceny of a purse and some money from Geo. Graham, and was sentenced to 12 months on the county roads. Johnnie Mack, colored, charged with an assault and battery, was found not guilty. The case was an appeal from the Recorder's court.

Dandy Johnson, a colored hack driver, was found guilty of cruelty to a horse, it being alleged that he drove a horse with a very sore back. Prayer for judgment was continued on condition that Johnson furnish bond for $100 to appear at every criminal term of court for the next two years and show that he has not been guilty of cruelty to animals.

Annie Rollins, white, charged with retailing, was called and failed. A capital was issued.

Not guilty was the verdict returned in the case against Paul Taylor, colored, charged with larceny. A nol prosequit was taken in the case against William Thomas, colored, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, on account of the fact that the State's witnesses could not be found.

The last case taken up in the afternoon was against Geo. Merritt, alias "Geo. Weston," a colored boy, charged with housebreaking. It is alleged that he attempted to enter the house of Miss Ellen Sheehan one Sunday morning in the month of May, about 8 o'clock. Several witnesses were examined yesterday and the court then took a recess. The case will be taken up and disposed of this morning.

The "Fish Trust" case, against six local fish dealers, charged with being a combination in restraint of trade, was not taken up yesterday afternoon, as had been thought. Solicitor Shaw stated that Hon. Geo. D. Bellamy and Herbert McClammy, Esq., whom he had thought would be associated with him in the prosecution, had withdrawn from the cases, and that he was not ready for trial. He stated that the attorneys had been appointed by the Governor, in accordance with the special act providing for the employment of counsel for prosecuting cases under the State law against trusts, but that they had withdrawn, he had feared, because they had received no fee.

FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY.
Remains of Mr. A. E. Van Amringe Laid to Rest in Oakdale.

The funeral of Mr. A. E. Van Amringe, whose death occurred at his home in New York City Saturday afternoon, was held at the lodge in Oakdale cemetery yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. There were present a number of friends and relatives. Following the services the body was laid to rest to await the resurrection morn.

Alford Ellis Van Amringe, son of George and Abbie Ellis Van Amringe, was born in New York on the 21st of January, 1846, and therefore was in the 66th year of his age. He was a brother of the late Mr. Stacey Van Amringe. The deceased spent nearly all of his life in Wilmington, coming here when a small child and remaining until about seven years ago, when he left to make his home with his niece, Mrs. Fannie Van Amringe Flannery, in New York. He was a devout Christian and his kindly gentle spirit won for him many friends. He is the last of a large family who were prominent in the social and business circles during the early life of Wilmington.

Wilmington Helps
Yesterday afternoon Fayetteville Observer: "The cities of Wilmington and Charlotte have kindly come to the assistance of Fayetteville in the way of furnishing police help during this week, Wilmington furnishing three men and Charlotte two, while Greensboro will, we think, furnish some by this afternoon's train. They are fine looking men, and are a great addition to the force."

WHO ARE THE PURCHASERS?

Speculation As to Purpose for Which Cape Fear Club Property Will Be Used—Handsome Building Likely

The announcement in yesterday's Star of the action of the Cape Fear Club in disposing of its property at the northwest corner of Second and Chesnut streets by exchange for a cash consideration and the lot at the southeast corner of Second and Chesnut streets, where it will build a handsome new club house, aroused more interest generally than any local item since the announcement early in the year of the purpose of the Atlantic Coast Line to erect a handsome passenger station and office building at the northeast corner of Front and Red Cross streets, and speculation was rife yesterday as to the identity of the purchasers and for what purpose the property will be used.

The proposition to the club was made by John D. Bellamy, Jr., Esq., acting for clients, whose names he was not prepared to give out. Mr. Bellamy said last night that it would probably be two weeks yet before he would be in position to announce the names of those for whom he was acting in the transaction.

There were several rumors yesterday as to the probable purchasers of the property. One report had it that very likely the property was secured for the Murchison National Bank and that the institution would erect a new home on the site. It had been assumed that it had outgrown its present handsome building at the northeast corner of the same streets. The idea report had it, was to erect on the lot the tallest building in North Carolina, 15 to 20 stories, the bank to use the first floor on the corner and the remainder of the building to be used for offices. In this connection there was also a rumor that the property of the Home Savings Bank, adjoining the club property on the north on Front street, might be bought and utilized in the erection of the new building.

Another rumor was that the Atlantic Coast Line is probably behind the purchase of the club property and that it is proposed to erect thereon a skyscraper. This report also had it that the first floor would be built and fitted especially for a bank.

While there may be no foundation in fact for any of the rumors, the property may be used for entirely a different purpose than any that have been surmised by those not directly connected with the transaction, yet the street talk is of general interest and is given for what it is worth. There is one point upon which all seem to agree, and that is that probably the handsomest and tallest building in Wilmington, possibly in the State, will be erected on this corner.

Announcement as to the purchasers and their plans for utilizing the property will be awaited with more than ordinary interest by the public.

THE RECORDER'S COURT
Little Interest at Yesterday Morning's Session.

Yesterday's session of the Recorder's court held little of interest for the habitual attendants who gather there in the hope of finding something wherewith to occupy minds and tongues for the remainder of the day. "De big cote," as the ducky ones are wont to term it, is in session and is claiming the attention of such as whose duties will allow them to attend.

Walter Croom, a white man, was convicted of an assault on his wife, and was fined $25 and costs. The case came up from Justice Borneman's court. Chas. Best, colored, was found guilty of assaulting another negro with a pair of knucks and was fined $10 and costs.

Henry McGee and Geo. McAllen, colored, and D. C. Stanley, white, were tried on a charge of affray and on being found guilty were fined $5 and costs each. The affray occurred on Front street between Princess and Chesnut, several days ago. G. F. Sessions and C. T. Littleton, white men, were also convicted of an affray and were fined $5 and costs each. Jim Kelly, colored, was fined $5 and costs for gambling.

E. M. Pope and G. W. Branch, white, were charged with violating the driving ordinance. Judgment was suspended on payment of the costs.

Fannie Williams, colored, who was convicted of keeping a disorderly house on June 27th, and upon whom a judgment of 30 days on the county farm was suspended on condition that she pay the costs, was brought into court yesterday, she having failed to raise the money to pay the costs. The woman was sent to the farm to serve her sentence.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HALL.
Services Held Yesterday Morning—Interment in Oakdale.

In the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and sympathizing friends, impressive funeral services were held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the residence of Mr. Eugene Philpaw, at Carolina Place, in honor of the memory of Mrs. Emma Davis Hall, the beloved wife of Mr. W. D. Hall, whose death occurred at her home on Greenville Sound Monday morning. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. J. M. Wells, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. Following the services the body was tenderly borne to Oakdale cemetery, where the interment took place. The pall-bearers were: monitory, Messrs. W. Worth, R. H. Pickett, A. M. Hall and Dr. E. Matthews; active, Messrs. S. P. Cowan, W. M. Cumming, J. C. Springer, J. B. Hand, J. O. Carr and D. C. Love.

Blake Case Continued.
The preliminary hearing in the case against C. T. Blake, a white man, charged with retailing whiskey, which was set for 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon before Justice Harris, was continued until August 6th, on account of the absence of a number of the defendant's witnesses. It will be taken up the day following the adjournment of the present term of Superior Court.

Meeting of Council Today

The regular weekly meeting of the City Council will be held this morning at 9:15 o'clock. Probably the most important matter scheduled for consideration is the plans for the improvement of the Front street market house. Provision for the improvement of the market house was made in the budget for the present fiscal year and Mayor Smith, who has charge of the market houses, is very anxious that the work be started as soon as possible.

Everett "Six" Out Again

The handsome Everett "Six" automobile, which was wrecked on July 4th, belonging to the livery service of Mr. J. S. Brittain, is out of Baker's garage at Eighth and Princess streets, as quick and smart as when it first came from the factory. It has again been placed in the service and is as silent and as powerful as ever.

New Vault Equipment

In order to meet the demand for safe deposit boxes in its steel-lined, fire and burglar proof vault, the Wilmington Savings & Trust Company has found it necessary to double its equipment and has placed an order for immediate delivery of 200 additional boxes of latest and most approved pattern. The vault, in which boxes are located is steel lined throughout and affords absolute protection against loss by fire or burglary. It is the proud boast of the makers that no vault of this construction has ever been successfully burglarized.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Brice, of Macon, Ga., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Pierce, at Sea Gate.

Misses Mary Louise Stover and Annie Mead Lynch returned early yesterday morning from Savannah and Tybee Beach, where they spent the past two weeks.

Yesterday afternoon's Fayetteville Observer: "Misses Mary Bullard and May Bracey, of Rowland, were in the city today on their way home from Wrightsville Beach."

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McLaughlin and children, of this city, have returned from a delightful sojourn of two weeks at Turnpike, in the mountains of Western North Carolina. They were delighted with their trip and the picturesque mountain scenery.

Mr. Samuel W. Westbrook, formerly of Wilmington, but now of Augusta, Ga., is spending a few days here. He is accompanied by his two young daughters. Mr. Westbrook is industrial agent of the Georgia & Florida Railway with headquarters in Augusta.

Mrs. W. T. Wisdom, of Muskogee, Okla., arrived last evening on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. James Howard, 418 North Third street. Mrs. Wisdom will be pleasantly remembered by many friends in Wilmington as Miss Pearl Guppy, of Peoria, Ill., who spent some time with her aunt in this city a number of years ago.

Associate Justice W. R. Allen, of the North Carolina Supreme Court bench, arrived last evening from his home in Goldsboro, to be the guest of Sheriff S. P. Cowan, at his home on Greenville Sound for some time. Judge Allen has many friends here who will welcome the opportunity of greeting him again.

The Daughters of Rebekah conducted an excursion up and down the river last night on the steamer Wilmington. While the crowd was not hardly as large as was expected, yet all who went on the trip had a most delightful time. Music was furnished by the Dolando Band. The boat left her wharf at 8 o'clock and returned shortly after 10 o'clock.

The Junior League of Fifth Street Methodist church will conduct an excursion to Southport tomorrow on the steamer Wilmington. This will afford a fine opportunity to visit the members of the Boys' Brigade now in annual encampment at Southport. The steamer Wilmington will make two trips, boat leaving at 9 A. M., and 2:30 P. M. Refreshments will be served on the boat. The round-trip will be only 25 cents.

Greensboro, N. C., July 23.—A quiet but pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Kennette here last night when Miss Grace Canavauagh became the bride of Dr. M. C. Bennett. Both the bride and groom are from Alexandria, Va., and something of romance attaches to the nuptial event. The bridegroom is connected with the Southern Railway at Alexandria while Miss Canavauagh has been in school there. The young lady was at Wrightsville Beach spending several days when Dr. Bennett went to the resort Sunday to spend the day. He persuaded Miss Canavauagh to come to Greensboro and wed, the young lady consented and last night they reached here and securing the necessary license pledged their troth at the home of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Kennette.

BOTH WERE TO BLAME

Employees and Officials Responsible for Western Springs Wreck
Chicago, July 23.—A verdict censuring both the employees and the officials of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, was returned today by the jury empaneled for the coroner's inquest into the death of 13 persons who lost their lives in the collision of fast mail and passenger trains at Western Springs, a Chicago suburb Sunday, July 14th.

Chief among the recommendations in the verdict was that men instead of women be employed in the signal towers of the block system and another that distance signals be maintained at all towers to supplement the regular block signals.
Mrs. Julia A. Wilcox, signal operator at Western Springs, the morning of the wreck, was criticised by the jury for permitting the mail train to pass Hinsdale, the station west of her tower, before the passenger train was in a place of safety. The verdict, however, noted that Mrs. Wilcox had not violated any rule of the company in her manipulation of the signals.
Condemnation of a public demand for a rapid operation of trains was included in the verdict, which declared that trains could not be safely run at the high speed demanded by the time schedules in foggy weather with the present signal service.

BOSTON ELEVATED STRIKE.

Men Were "Fired" When Union Was Formed.

Boston, July 23.—The official report of the investigation of the Boston elevated railroad strike conducted by the State board of conciliation and arbitration finds the employees justified in believing that many men were discharged because of forming a union. It is recommended that the two parties confer with a view to reaching an amicable agreement.

The evidence presented shows that immediately after the employees formed a union some 262 men were discharged for various offenses, 149 of the number without explanation other than "unsatisfactory service."

Fairfield, Ill., July 23.—Three sons of James P. Gillison, a farmer, living eight miles northeast of this city, seven, nine and eleven years old, were drowned today in a pond while swimming.

The police have been notified that the residence of Prof. Geo. L. Johnson, No. 212 Orange street, was entered early Monday morning, and that a coat and watch are missing. The officers are working on the case.

LOCAL DOTS.

—The Clyde liner Navahoe, Capt. Packer, arrived on her regular trip from New York, a day late on account of complications at the other end of the line growing out of the strike of seamen. Advice from Mr. H. H. Raymond, general manager of the Clyde Steamship Co., is to the effect that the strike of seamen has been settled and no further trouble will be experienced on this account.

Wilmington's Sewerage Plant.

Says yesterday afternoon's Charlotte Chronicle: "The city of Wilmington has only just now purchased its sewerage system, but it is taking hold with determination now. From $150,000 to $200,000 is to be spent in extending the lines and thoroughly covering the city, and $30,000 is to be spent in the erection of an incinerator or crematory. Charlotte is ahead of Wilmington in the matter of sewerage, for the time being, at least, but the Queen City could well use that Coast City as a model in some respects. For instance, according to reports, this city is badly in need of a new crematory."

Real Estate Transfers.

Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: Max Warshawer to Isaac Hurwitz and M. L. Hurwitz, for $10 and other considerations, one-third interest in lot on Fourth, 29 1-4 feet north of Campbell, 23 3-4x82 1-2 feet in size; Max Warshawer to Isaac Hurwitz and M. L. "WHAT IN THE NAME?"

Honolulu Maiden With Elongated Prefix to Wed Virginian.

Honolulu, July 23.—In a setting of barbaric splendor marked by a revival of the old Kanaka wedding feast, Thelma Kahlaonapoopilani Parker will be married on her estate near here July 25th to Henry Gaillard Smart, the son of a Virginia clergyman. Preparations for the wedding have been under way for weeks on the vast Parker estate, which Miss Parker inherited from her grandmother and every known resource of the old feudal days in providing luxurious entertainments will be revived.

Henry Gaillard Smart, of Boynton, Va., met Miss Parker on the steamship Korea last December when he was en route to Hawaii to begin a business career on the islands. Miss Parker, who is widely known in San Francisco society was just out finishing school and the romance began before the boat reached Honolulu.

The young heiress came of age a few weeks ago and her birthday was celebrated by a carnival of sports in her island home. At the same time her estate, consisting of land and cattle valued at many millions, was divided, one-fourth being deeded to her mother, Mrs. Frederick Knight, and one-fourth being set aside for a charity fund. A crowd of guests left July 16th for the Parker estate and others are following daily. The native feast of the Luau will begin tomorrow. It will be served in the open with all the old-time Hawaiian delicacies. Carnivals of outdoor sports, consisting of feats of horsemanship and unique Hawaiian pastimes have been in progress for the last week.

Berlin, July 23.—The most modern military airship of the Zeppelin rigid type, was taken over today by the War department after an endurance speed trial lasting 18 hours. The airship developed a speed of 49 miles an hour and is considered the most speedy dirigible in the world. It has been christened the "Z-III", and is to be stationed at the Fortress of Metz, on the frontier.

SEARCH FOR INTOXICANTS

Officers Visited Five Suspected "Blind Tigers" Last Evening—Beer or Whiskey Found in Four of Them—Other Locked.

Squads of policemen simultaneously raided five places suspected of being "blind tigers" last evening between 5:30 and 6 o'clock, finding beer or whiskey, or both, in four of them, it is alleged. In the other place no search was made. Chief John Fowler headed one of the raids.

No arrests were made by the officers. At each place a list of the beer or whiskey found was taken and turned in at headquarters. The great jury is now in session and it is likely that the findings of the police will be reported to that body. It is said that one or more of the proprietors of the places searched, entered a plea of nolo contendere to charges of selling whiskey in the Superior Court a few months ago, and upon whom prayer for judgment was continued on condition that the defendant sell no more whiskey or intoxicating liquors.

Officers Gray and Newton searched the place said to be owned by H. E. Truelove, at 311 North Front street, finding about 75 bottles of beer in the ice box and a quantity of bottled beer on the outside. They also say they found seven unopened barrels of what the proprietor is said to have called malt. Mr. Truelove is said to have told the officers that he was only a clerk in the place.

At 1021 Market street a place said to be run by John Capps, Officers Merrill and Smith reported that the clerk gained the entrance to the bar before they could get in and locked the door, preventing them from making a search.

A place on the southeast corner of Water and Princess streets, said to be operated by Reynolds Bros., was raided by officers Seasons and Munn, who report that they found a large quantity of beer in the ice box. They said that several cubboards in the room were locked before they could inspect them.

Officers Bullard and George made a search of a place at 13th and Market streets, said to belong to J. W. Stokely, finding 28 bottles of whiskey, they said, and a quantity of beer, as well as several unopened barrels of either beer or whiskey.

Chief Fowler and Officers Coleman and Bullard searched a place on Second, between Market and Dock streets, said to belong to J. W. Shipp. They said they found about two dozen bottles of beer in the ice box, 26 bottles of Old Henry whiskey, 40 bottles of gin, 64 bottles of corn whiskey and about 15 barrels of empty beer and whiskey bottles. Chief Fowler stated that this place seemed to be in charge of Samuel Mintz, white, at the time of the raid.

WANTED IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Negro Being Held Here for Palmetto State Officer

Chief of Police J. J. Fowler has received a telegram from Sheriff E. B. Gamble, of Summerton, S. C., asking that Decker Gayler, alias John Gayler, colored, who was arrested here a few days ago on a charge of vagrancy, be held until a South Carolina officer can be sent for him. The telegram requested that Decker be held on a charge of assault and battery with intent to kill.

Decker was arrested several days ago on information furnished the W. A. by a negro who told them that he had just seen a negro who shot at him in South Carolina a short time ago. He declared that the bullet passed through his hat, and that Decker had also shot at five other people, two of whom were wounded. He gave the police a description of Decker, telling them where he could be found, and the man's arrest followed. Chief Fowler telegraphed the authorities at Summerton asking if the man should be held and received the telegram as stated, in reply.

Prayer Service Tonight

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, who is spending some days in New York with a party from this city, the weekly prayer service at the First Baptist church tonight will be conducted by the Business Men's Bible Class of the church. Mr. D. H. Penton, president of the class, will likely have charge of the service, but Mr. J. P. Whyte, the teacher, and probably a dozen other members will take part in the meeting. The singing will be one of the features of the service. The public is cordially invited to attend.

What Makes a Woman?
One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation. Put into it health and strength and she may rule a kingdom. But that's what Electric Bitters gives her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless, worn out feeling. "Electric Bitters have done me a world of good," writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla., "and I thank you, with all my heart, for making such a good medicine." Only 50c. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

"LOOK WHO'S HERE."

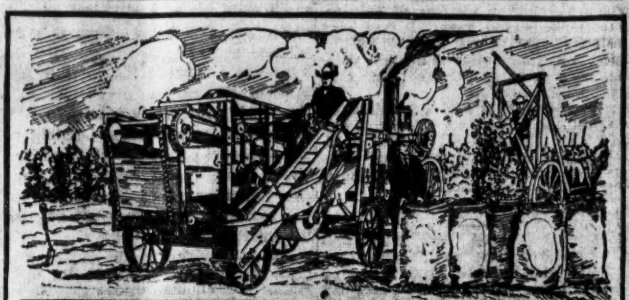

The Grasses of Atlanta, Again in the Line—The Trial.
Atlanta, Ga., July 23.—Eugene H. Grace, who was mysteriously shot in his home in the exclusive residence section of a city last March, and who accuses his wife, Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace, of the crime, has been summoned as a witness at his wife's trial, scheduled to begin next Monday. Grace now is at his mother's home at 55 South Ga., slowly recovering from the effects of the bullet which lodged in his spinal column, causing partial paralysis.

Mrs. Grace, the accused woman, formerly of Philadelphia, in a statement today declared that within ten days she will be a free woman. She said she was delighted that the trial was not postponed, but that a jury will have a chance to remove the stigma from her name.

The injured man charges that his wife shot him the night of March 5th, for the purpose of getting rid of him to get possession of his life insurance, amounting to $27,000. Mrs. Grace, who has large property interests in the Quaker City, denies the charge. She has made counter charges, declaring that Grace knows who shot him and intimating that another woman is involved.

Profits Doubled With The Benthall Peanut Picker!

If you grow peanuts and do not use a Benthall Peanut Picker, you actually lose money by not owning one.

The Benthall makes peanut growing doubly profitable.

The wages you pay—the losses from delays in not getting your crop early to market—the losses from birds and stealing—cost you more than a machine.

If you own a Benthall, you and your boys can do the work of a hundred hands, and do it better. You reap your crop to market early—secure highest prices. You stop the theft of your crop.

Growers now see that hand picking is far too costly.

The folly of attempting to "thresh" them has been plainly shown.

For machines that "thresh" them destroy profits.

They crack the nuts—and cracked nuts will not keep.

They grind the vines to smithereens—and these vines are the equal of alfalfa for feed—worth from $12 to $20 per ton.

Contrast such machines with the Benthall.

The vines are fed to the Benthall just as grain to the threshing machine.

The peanuts are pulled off the vine without injury to the shell. The machine picks as delicately as human fingers—hundreds of times more rapidly.

Many buyers give preference to Benthall picked nuts.

The vines are saved in perfect condition for hay.

The recleaning and bagging attachment makes it unnecessary to run the peanuts over for seed the second time.

This is the picker of proved worth—proved out in the peanut fields of Virginia.

Either Spanish or Virginia varieties are picked equally as well.

It is mounted—ready to hitch—as you would a farm wagon. You can easily move it from place to place.

There are models suited for horse or engine power—machines that are made interchangeable.

Every year sees more farmers using the Benthall. It has supplanted all other methods in many sections. And the demand this year promises to be greater than we can supply.

THE MACHINE THAT PAYS FOR ITSELF.

If you don't want to let profits slip thru your fingers—if you want to make money growing peanuts, write us for our folder "How the Benthall Pays For Itself." Sent Free upon request.

COTTON PRICES ARE HIGHER

Reports of Better Weather in South
Failed to Inspire Selling—
Market 8 to 11 Points Up for
The Day

New York, July 23.—Reports of better weather in the South failed to inspire any very aggressive selling in the cotton market today, and prices ruled generally higher with the close steady, at a net advance of 8 to 11 points.

The opening was steady, at an advance of 3 to 7 points, and active positions were about 8 to 9 points net higher during the early trading in keeping with relatively firm Liverpool cables. Reports of general clearing weather in the Eastern belt and the Eastern belt forecast pointing to continued clear weather except for showers in North Carolina, tended to encourage selling at the initial advance, but offerings were relatively absorbed. Part of the buying was attributed to Liverpool buyers, supposedly against sales in the market there, and after the English close prices here sagged off four or five points from the best. The failure of the Southwest to receive any good soaking rains and the fact that there was nothing in the trading around the ring to suggest increased Southern offerings as a result of the better weather served to restrict local pressure, however, and the market, turned firmer again after 1 o'clock, with prices reaching the best level of the day in the late trading on covering and trade buying.

MEMBERS ARE INDIFFERENT

tolls, and of the rights of the United States under the treaty with England, have provoked keen feeling in the Senate, and an agreement on various provisions will not be reached. It is believed now, without long debate. The balance of this week, beginning Thursday is given over to tariff bills, and several other appropriation measures have still to be considered in the Senate with the prospect that they will further delay action on the bill to govern operations of the canal.

Senator Percy declared against any discrimination to American ships. He expressed the belief that the United States had by treaty, guaranteed equal treatment to all nations, including itself, and that no international court would sustain the United States if it claimed the right to give free passage to its own ships.

CONDITIONS IN MEXICO.

Certain States Virtually Put Under Martial Law.

Mexico City, July 23.—As a result of an attack on a train between this city and Cuernavaca, three days ago and other attacks in the south, as well as in the north, it was unanimously decided at a cabinet meeting known to the public through the press. It was also admitted that doubt was entertained as to the loyalty of several commanding officers of the Federal and State troops.

COUNT COMES TO GRIEF.

One of German Nobility in Trouble With Debts at Chicago.

Chicago, July 23.—Charged with having operated a confidence game, Count Kurt Von Knoedensdorff was held to the grand jury today by Municipal Judge Newcomb.

The defendant presented a birth certificate and his father's death certificate to prove he was a member of the German nobility.

The complaining witnesses were Julius Conrath and Henry Jung, who testified they held promissory notes amounting to $1,000 signed by the Count. The witnesses said they had advanced the Count the money of his representation that he soon was to get his share of an inheritance from his father's estate. They said investigation by private detective agency showed that the Count was disinterested when he married an actress several years ago.

After being held to the grand jury, Count Von Knoedensdorff was unable to furnish bail and was taken to the county jail.

He said his wife, who anxious to obtain a divorce, was responsible for his present predicament.

DRY GOODS FAILURE.

Raleigh Firm Files Schedule—Little Blockading Going On.

Raleigh, N. C., July 23.—The schedule of assets and liabilities for Walter Woolcott, trading as The Woolcott Dry Goods Co., in the bankruptcy proceedings, was filed today in the Federal court here, and shows liabilities aggregating $25,040 and assets amounting to $31,411. Among the liabilities are notes to the Raleigh Savings Bank, amounting to $5,100 and Citizens' National Bank, $5,600. Inability to realize on assets brought about the failure.

Revenue officers say that there has not been a long while so little blockading of whiskey in the Central and Eastern sections of the State as at present, and United States Commissioner Jno. Nichols adds that there is every indication that former blockade runners have reached the conclusion that it is cheaper and safer to just order whiskey from without the State and sell it at a big profit, instead of running the risk of blockading, as well as selling. Selling blockaded whiskey is very much on the increase.

FATAL AUTO CRASH.

Man and Boy Killed Near Annetson, Ala., Last Night.

Annetson, Ala., July 23.—L. R. Winn, president of the Annetson Baseball Club, and Robert Britton, aged eight, were killed here tonight when Mr. Winn's automobile turned turtle over an embankment three miles outside the city. Mrs. Winn and her baby and two young women who were in the car, also were injured, but not seriously. The car was a new one and Winn lost control in attempting to turn about on the road. He and the Britton boy, who occupied the front seat, were caught under the car and crushed to death.

Salisbury, N. C., July 23.—A contract has been awarded to D. K. Cecil, of Lexington, to build the new Princeton cotton mill in Salisbury. The building is to cost $6,000 and will be located in the western suburb of the city. A number of Salisbury capitalists are backing the enterprise, which will start soon.

BLOWING ROCK COUNTRY

Some of Its Beauties and Delights Pictured by Hurraygraph.
(Special Star Correspondence.)
Green Park Hotel, Green Park, N. C., July 23.—The Blowing Rock country, 4,300 feet skyward, up through the clouds, is the Switzerland of America in beauty and picturesque grandeur. It is the El Dorado of nature's health stores and the elysium of the delightful breezes, invigorating air, so exhilarating that a charming and talented lady guest said that she felt as if she were "breathing champagne," and refreshing ice-cold water from mountain springs. It is the panacea for worries and business troubles—the home of health, the resort of rest, and the place of placid pleasure. The temperature now registers 68, and averages 74 in August. You sleep like a child, covering with blankets, and soon possess an appetite that makes the Green Park people happy. They delight to see you eat heartily.

The famous blowing rock is one of the wonders of nature. It is on the top of a precipitous mountain, near the Green Park Hotel, some 300 feet in height, and overlooks a vast gulf of mountain tops, valleys, dales and coves, with breezes blowing in from the great expanse sufficient to blow back to the rock any ordinary light thing thrown over the rock precipice. The small clearings, mountain farms and homes nestling here and there as far as the human eye can reach, look like a patchwork quilt spread in a rugged manner upon the heaving bosom of nature. Before the delighted and awe-inspiring beholder stands the majestic Grandfather mountain, towering skyward; silent and sublime, with chain after chain of mountains that link themselves in colorings from a dark green shaded into an invisible blue that melts into the azure of the sky, and looks, to the imagination, like a cerulean pathway beyond the clouds. At every turn in this delightful country there are natural pictures of beauty that cause the sense of admiration to revel in the glories of a "hand divine" that has placed here such a wealth of mountain scenery, and surrounds it with such rarefied air and pure crystal water.

The guests at the Green Park (which is the gem of a hotel, upon a beautiful green plateau on the crest of the Blue Ridge, where the water from a spring on the southeast side flows into the Atlantic ocean, and the water from another spring on the northwest side flows into the Gulf of Mexico), embrace many North Carolinians, and people from seven States, and many others are coming in daily.

This is a wonderful country and must be seen to be appreciated.

Troop A, Cavalry of the North Carolina National Guard, from Lincoln, Capt. W. A. Fair in command, fifty men and fifty horses, with three escort wagons, are expected to arrive here in the morning for a four-day encampment in the beautiful Blowing Rock country. Their tents will be pitched on a lovely little park, green and soft like in appearance, adjoining the Green Park Hotel park, which the manager, Mr. R. H. Harper, tendered the company free of charge.

The soldier boys are on a ten-day march, and will maneuver in the mountains. The Green Park Hotel contingent are looking for Uncle Sam's Lincoln troops to capture all the suffragettes and near-suffragettes on the mountain tops.

ROBBERIES IN OSNLOW.

Postoffice and Stores at Snead's Ferry Entered—Posse in Pursuit.
(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., July 23.—Robbers between 1 and 5 o'clock this morning broke into the postoffice at Snead's Ferry, Osnlow county, and rifled the safe, securing, however, only $1 in cash. The remainder of the money which had been there the previous day and also a quantity of stamps having been removed by Postmaster P. P. Sheppard. In addition to robbing the postoffice, the stores of Mr. C. J. Jenkins and Postmaster Sheppard were also broken into and a quantity of merchandise carried away. Two robberies have occurred there during the week. On last Sunday night several stores were entered, including the two also mentioned and goods and money were stolen.

On Monday a search was made for the thieves, but they had left not the least trace, and the pursuers were forced to give up the hunt, when the second robbery was discovered. The sheriff telegraphed to Raleigh for bloodhounds, but for some reason could not secure them. He at once organized a posse and went in search of the robbers. A telephone message from Jacksonville tonight stated that the posse in search of the robbers had arrived there, but up to that time had been unsuccessful in their attempt to apprehend them.

DEFENSE OF CLAUDE ALLEN

Father and Brother of Defendants On Stand Yesterday

Wytheville, Va., July 23.—Floyd and Victor Allen, father and brother of the defendant, today were put on the witness stand by the defense in the trial of Claude Allen, for the murder of Commonwealth Attorney Foster, of Carroll county. The father repeated his assertion that Clerk Dexter Gould had offered to get a jury that would acquit him on the charge on which he was being tried at the time of the Hillsville tragedy if Allen would support the clerk politically. Both witnesses stuck to the evidence they gave at the former trials.

Six other witnesses for the defense were examined today their evidence being of a nature to refute the contention of the State that the Allens conspired to murder the court officials.

TROOPS SENT TO SCENE.

Trouble With Miners in West Virginia

Charleston, W. Va., July 24.—One company of militia and a machine gun squad left here early tonight for Peytona, Boone county, where a deputy sheriff was fatally shot today during a fight with striking coal miners. Sheriff White called upon Governor Glasscock for the troops, declaring he was unable to handle the situation. Except that Deputy Sheriff Southpaw was shot, no details have yet been received of the trouble. Peytona adjoins the Paint Creek region, where miners have been on strike for several months.

Adjutant General Elliott accompanied the troops. Peytona will be reached before midnight.

RECIPROCITY BILL

Taft Wants Opinion of Leaders on Its Repeal

Washington, D. C., July 23.—President Taft has indicated to Republican leaders in the Senate a wish to know their views about repealing the Canadian reciprocity act.

The Senate has already passed repeal provisions as amendments to two tariff bills and a separate bill for the repeal of the act has been favorably reported by the finance committee.

Mr. Taft so far, however, has indicated either to the finance committee or its members that he is not yet ready to favor a repeal, but has not been known that if the Senate favors such a measure, he would discuss it with them.

President Taft has indicated to several Western Senators who were active opponents of Canadian reciprocity that he would favor repeal of the act.

Mr. Taft will not withdraw his own support of Canadian reciprocity as a principle, it is understood, but will take the position that the United States should not continue an offer that Canada refuses.

The reciprocity law continues in effect in the United States notwithstanding Canada's refusal to endorse it.

Senators McCumber, Heyburn, Gronna and others have urged a repeal and an amendment was put on the steel tariff bill, recently passed by Congress and now in conference, providing for such action.

It is asserted among Western Senators that if any tariff measure is passed in the Senate this week an amendment will also be incorporated for the repeal of the reciprocity law. In case any one of these bills reaches the President and is vetoed it is expected he will make clear in his veto message the fact that he would improve a measure to repeal the reciprocity law.

PRESERVE FOR BIRDS.

Conservation Undertaken on Large Scale in Louisiana State.

New Orleans, La., July 23.—Marsh Island, located in Iberia parish, and containing about 74,000 acres, was purchased yesterday by E. A. McIlhenny, of Avery Island, and will be added, so it is understood, to 13,000 acres deeded a few months ago to the State of Louisiana by Mr. McIlhenny and others to form a great preserve for wild birds. The purchase price was $146,000. Several Easterners are said to be associated with Mr. McIlhenny in the purchase.

The plan of the conservationists is to establish throughout the length of the Mississippi valley a chain of preserves where wild birds will be protected.

MARKETING COTTON.

South Carolina State Farmers' Union to Meet in Columbia.

Columbia, S. C., July 23.—Marketing of the cotton crop will be the principal subject to be discussed by the South Carolina State Farmers' Union at its annual meeting, which will be held here tomorrow and Thursday. Reports will be received from county committees which have been appointed to canvass the banks and find out what those institutions will do in the way of helping the farmers.

Officers of the union will be elected Thursday.

E. W. Dabbs, State president, will call the first session to order at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. An educational session will be held at night.

RAIDS IN FAYETTEVILLE

"No Tax" Dealers Closed Up and Beer Was Confiscated

(Special Star Telegram.)
Fayetteville, N. C., July 23.—A sensation was created in the city this afternoon when Hon. Jno. G. Shaw, who was candidate for Lieutenant Governor, issued a warrant which was delivered to Sheriff N. H. McGeechey which charged that the "no tax" ten, of which were selling in the city, were selling beer of all brands and whiskey; also the sheriff found at all places about one hundred barrels of beer which were confiscated. No whiskey was found. However, the firemen and visitors here for the tournament will not go lacking as there will be ample provision for them outside these places by their friends.

TWO DEAD IN WRECK

Light Engine Jumps Track and Plunges Down Ravine

Huntington, W. Va., July 23.—Engineer A. L. Malcom, of Buffalo, W. Va., and Fireman Jarrett Preston, of Dunbar, Va., were crushed to death tonight when a light engine on the Norfolk & Western Railroad jumped the track near the home of Malcom and rolled into a ravine. An air hose had burst on a freight train on which the men were running and they were unable to move the train. In order to notify a passenger train of the accident, Malcom and Preston started for Buffalo on a light engine.

WILSON IS BUSY.

Denies Himself to Callers While at Work on Speech.

Sea Girl, N. J., July 23.—Governor Wilson began today to write his speech of acceptance, which will be delivered August 7, when he is officially notified of his nomination to be the Democratic standard bearer. He spent the night at the home of a friend, where he will deny himself to all callers until the speech is completed. He expects to spend today and tomorrow at the task and perhaps a portion of Thursday.

"I expect to make this speech as short as I can," he said, "although brevity will not be my principal aim."

Baltimore, July 23.—Cardinal Gibbons is 78 years of age today. He planned to spend the day quietly at the home of a friend in Carroll county, where, except for the years he has spent in European or other trips, many of his birthdays.

The Cardinal is reported to be in excellent health. He received many letters and telegrams of congratulation on the anniversary.

MOTHERS' FRIEND

No young woman, in the joy of motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The child, of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.
